Anne Akerson

Florida based harpist and pianist Anne Akerson is well known for her musical versatility, professionalism and stylistic and polished performances in area performing and worship venues.

Ms. Akerson currently devotes her work as a performing musician to corporate, retailing and private events along with chamber music events, concerts, convention and promotional work along with worship and wedding events. She has represented several major cruise lines as solo entertainer for various itineraries including two world cruises.

In addition to soloing, Ms. Akerson is one of the founding members of the eight-harp "Octavia" (Texas Harp Ensemble) and has recorded an album with this group. She also performs regularly in duo or trio ensembles with flute, violin, cello or acoustic bass, or a second harp or piano for music ranging from classical to light jazz. Currently she teaches piano in the Preparatory Department of Palm Beach Atlantic University.

By background a native Nebraskan, Ms. Akerson is a graduate of the University of Nebraska (B.S. Education/Music) with graduate work in music (harp) at the University of North Texas. She is active in the American Harp Society both locally and nationally, a member of ASTA (American String Teachers Association), Music Teachers National Association and the Palm Beach County Music Teachers Association.
